PRESIDENT — Enterprise Newspaper Group

Dear Enterprise readers,

Did 2021 just pass before our eyes? They say time passes by faster with age, but I didn't think I was getting that old. Since the outbreak of COVID-19, it seems we have been frozen in time and at the same time been put on fast forward.

It seems business in Utah has had a similar experience. According to the U.S. Small Business Administration, between March 2019 and March 2020 (the data are similar for 2020 to 2021), 12,927 Utah establishments opened while 10,968 closed for a net increase of 1,959. Employment expanded 22,182 and contracted 19,730. Small businesses accounted for 12,513 openings and 10,602 closings. Opening and expanding establishments added 153,107 jobs, while closing and contracting establishments lost 132,812, for a net increase of 22,295 jobs. Small businesses gained 133,313 jobs and lost 109,465, for a net increase of 23,848 jobs.

In a nutshell, we are “operating in the black” and thriving with job growth, expansion and unemployment (unemployment went from 10.1 percent in April 2020 to 2.1 percent currently, its lowest ever recorded) — not to mention that Forbes and CNBC rank Utah No. 3 overall in “America’s Top States for Doing Business.”

In another nutshell, with Utah’s low cost of doing business, diverse and growing economy, supportive regulatory environment, talented labor supply, thriving startup culture and high quality of life, Utah is a great state for business.

Once again, we are excited to present you with the 2022 edition of The Enterprise-Utah’s Business Journal Book of Lists. As always, I am impressed at the significance of this publication as a reference tool for the Utah business community. It gets used by our readers consistently throughout the year. The Book of Lists is free with a subscription to The Enterprise. Because we know how much the book gets used, we are pleased to provide it as a special bonus to our readers. FOUR GOOD MEN. ONE GREAT COMPANY.

At Transcript Bulletin Publishing, we're proud of our deep heritage that began in 1894. With 127 years under our belt, that makes us the oldest continuous business in Tooele County, and one of the oldest in Utah. Transcript Bulletin Publishing has been owned and managed by the same family since 1989. It all began with Publisher James Dunn, a Scottish immigrant. His passion for the written word continued with his son, Alex, and then grandson, Joel. Those three men sparked the company and its newspaper, the Tooele Transcript Bulletin, to ultimately grow into a major printing, publishing and design enterprise with over 60 employees today. Now at the publisher helm, great-grandson Scott leads it all into a second century of existence with even greater passion and purpose. Four good men. One great company. Transcript Bulletin Publishing.

CONSTRUCTION IS OUR BUSINESS, BUT WE MAKE IT PERSONAL

R & O CONSTRUCTION

When we look to the future, we don't aim to be the biggest general contractor. We aim to be the general contractor that is big enough to handle the needs of your project. The secret to our success is that we do not differentiate between large and small. We believe every client and every project deserves the same level of service and attention to detail. Every project we undertake is critical for you and our commitment is to treat you that way. Your project is Big Enough for us to treat it like it is our most important project. Because it is.

THE VOICE OF UTAH'S MINING INDUSTRY SINCE 1915

For over 100 years, the Utah Mining Association has proudly represented an industry that is essential to everyone's lifestyle and standard of living. As the beginning of the supply chain for everything we use and everything we do as a society, the mining industry has a great story to tell, and our association strives to tell that story.

Now, more than ever, we advocate for Utah's mine operations and service partners. We are proud of Utah's record of safe, environmentally friendly mining practices, and we recognize the tremendous economic impact the industry has in Utah and beyond.
